

This is the gate where we come into Nursery.

This is the pegs where we hang up our bag and coats.

This is the carpet where we sing, eat snack and listen to stories.

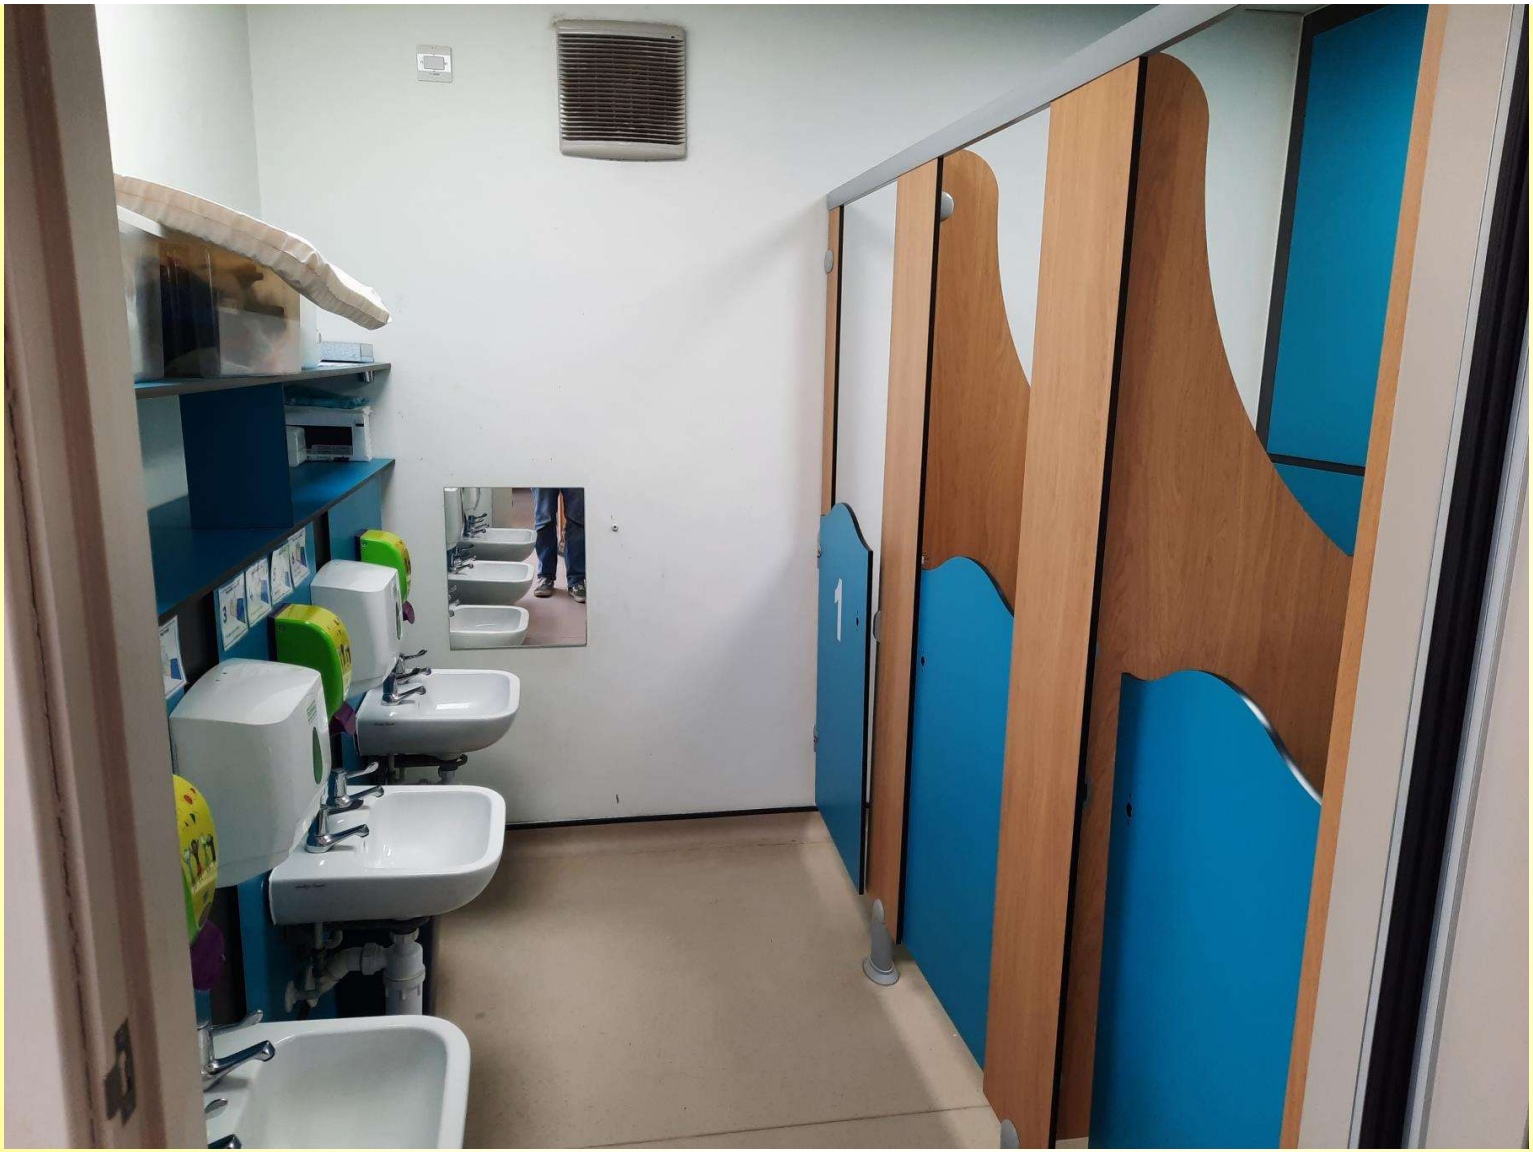

This is the reading corner where we read and share stories with each other.

This is the home corner where we role play and pretend.

This is the mark making corner where we write, paint, stamp and draw.

This is the toilet where we go to the loo and wash our hands.

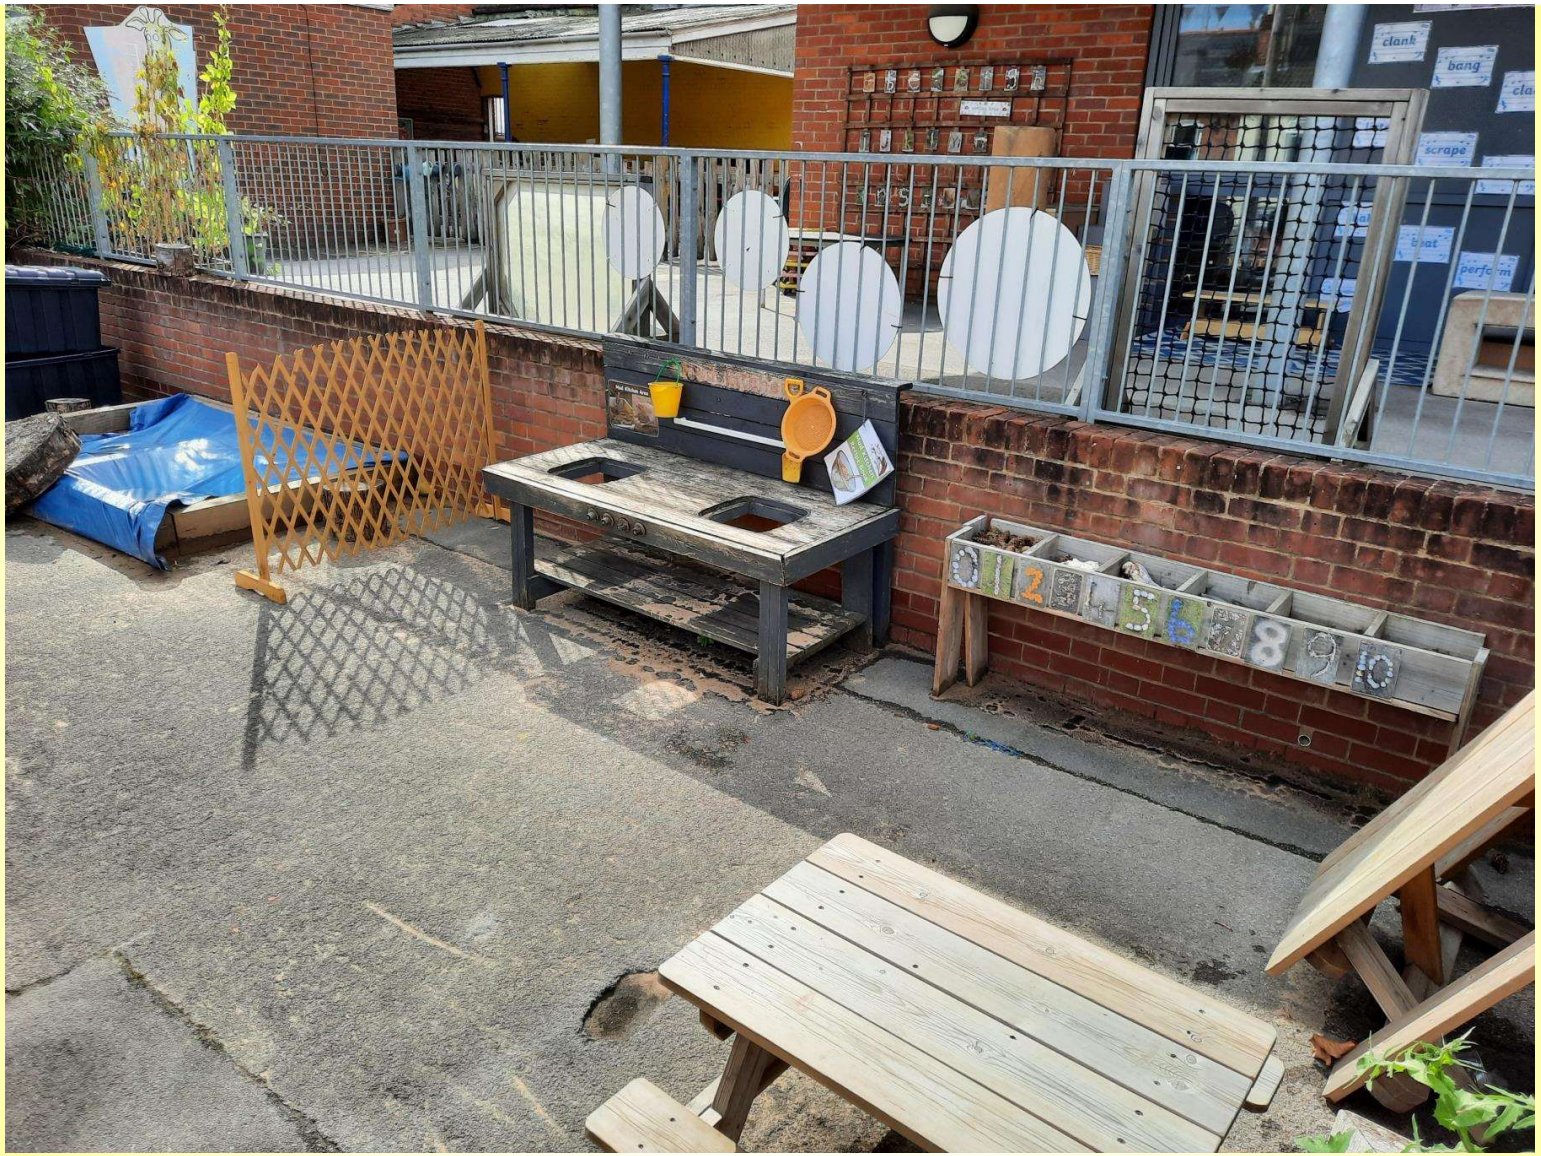

This is the canopy where we can play outside even when its rainy.

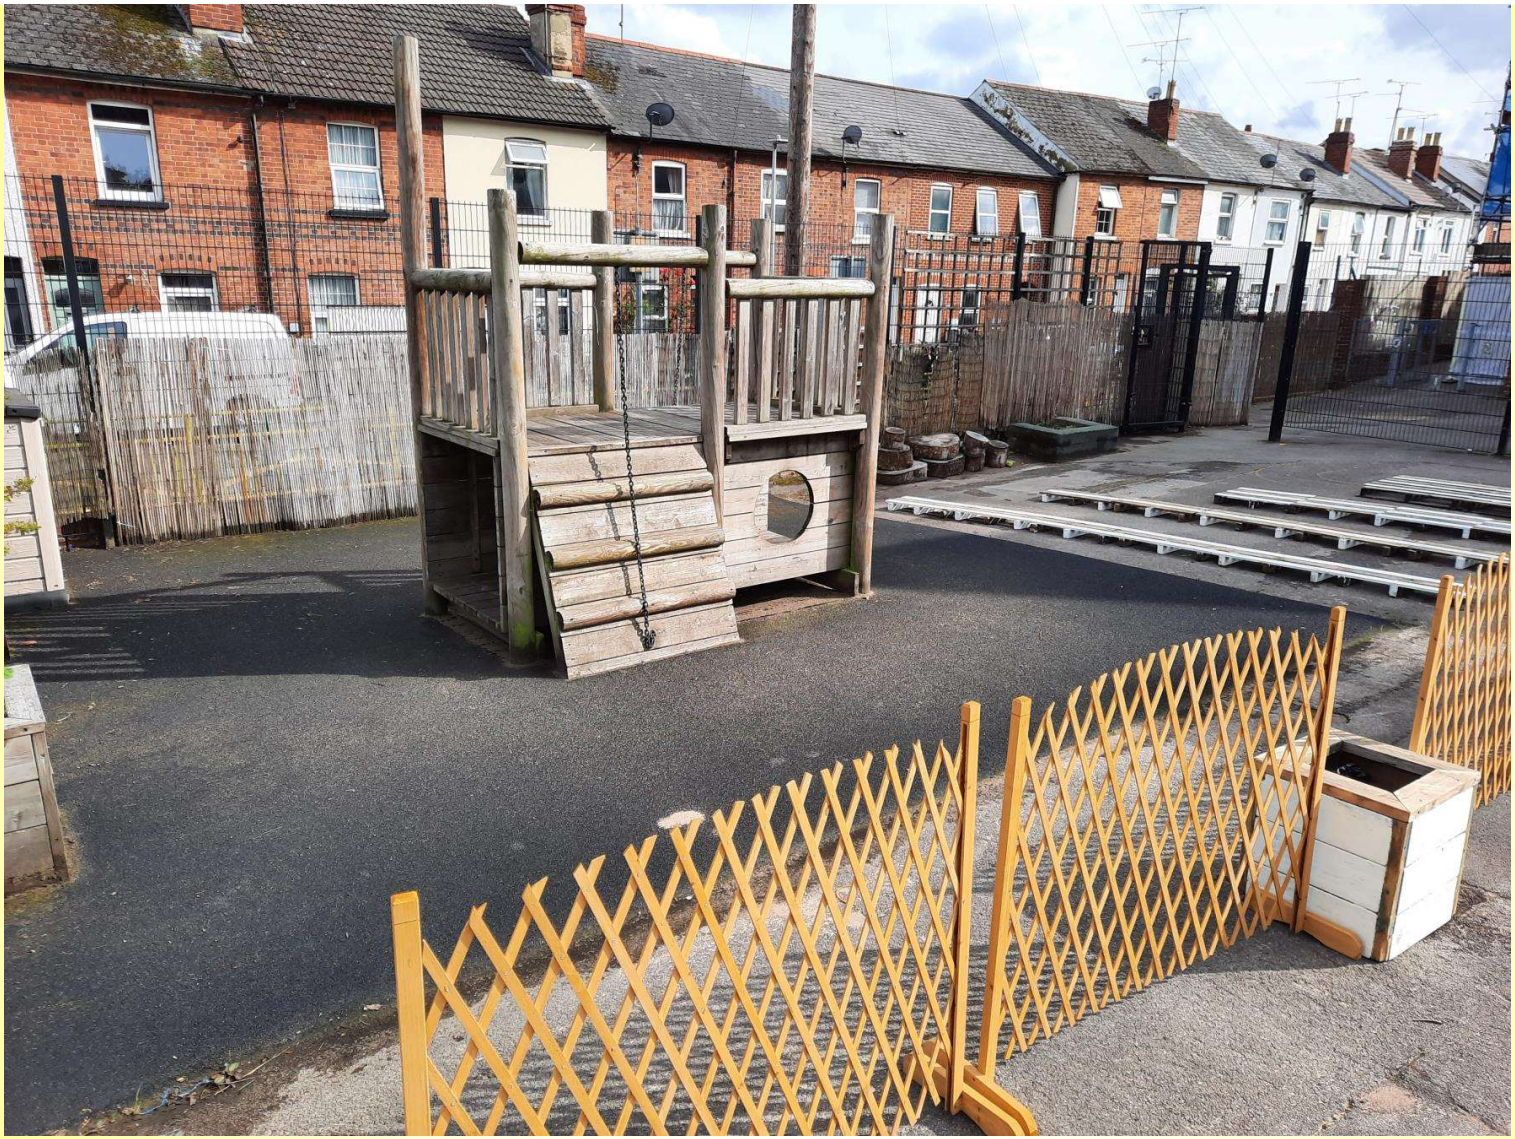

These are our outside mark making & music areas where we can be creative.

This is our sandpit. It’s covered up at the moment so it’s fresh when you arrive.

This is our mud kitchen where we pretend to cook and make a real mess.

This is the climbing frame where we can climb, jump and play.

This is our playhouse and garden where we can roleplay.

This is our race track where we can play sports and ride our bikes and scooters.
